WAITING FOR THE TRAVE.
The Big Steamer Is Three and a Half Days Late, but It's All Right.

Shippers and Friends of Passengers Have Made, anxious inquiries since Friday as to the whereabouts of the North German Lloyd steamship Trave, which usually arrives in port on that day.

At the office of Oelrichs & Co., agents for the line, an EYEWITNESS reporter was told today that all fears of the vessel's safety were groundless and that it was on its way to New York.

Mr. J. G. Gould Improving.
Mrs. J. G. Gould passed a comfortable night, and when the doctor made his usual visit this morning appeared very much improved. Her power of speech seems to be gradually returning, and she is now able to plainly articulate several words.

Carrying It Rather Too Far.
CORTON, Ind., Nov. 19.—The Republicans of Morton, this county, got out a banner, formed in funeral procession, marched to the cemetery and went through the funeral of a man who had been killed in a fight with a woman.

That Dandy Account.
Tubercular consumption is simply lung-rot, the active and dangerous development of a latent disease. The great blood-cleansing principle contained in Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People is to purify the blood and prevent the formation of tubercles in the lungs and bronchial tubes.

White Men Were Their Accomplices.
BUFFALO, Nov. 19.—Another gang of opium smugglers has been unearthed by Government officials. The arrest of a fingerling in New York was quickly followed by the apprehension here, last night, of three Chinamen and two Americans as accomplices. The opium was smuggled across the border at Suspension Bridge, and the members of the gang who acted as placers were Chinamen, yet no Chinese were detected coming from Canada.

Motor Keely's Sunday in Prison.
PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Nov. 19.—Prisoner 150 in Moyamensing jail, who is serving a term of one year for a burglary, was taken to the city hall today to be released on Sunday, and then stood looking gloomily through the small cell window out upon the gray November day.
